

Every Relationship

Owen Benjamin

Why are you, mad?
What did I do?
Why won't you talk, to me?

How can I know?
If you, don't tell me?
Why are you so mad, at me?

We just woke up
Like, ten minutes ago
I can't think of one thing I could of possibly done, between now and then

Was it another dream you had
About me doing something bad in the dream because if you are seriously mad at me for that, you're crazy
