No Goodbyes

Ingrid Chavez

Oh yeah
Yo no more tears no more goodbyesDon't you know its time for me to go
Even though it hurts to see you cry, uh huh
But don't you know you'll never be alone
If you hold me deep inside, oh yeahYou know that I would rather stay
But now before I turn away
There's one last thing to you I wanna sayBaby there's no goodbyes
I'll always be right by your side
Well I may be far away
You know that my heart will stay with you alwaysNow cripter is in the distance
Even though it seems a million miles, hmm yeah
But there'll be no space between us
I'll be there every time you close your eyes, yes I will ohYou know that I would rather stay
But now before I turn away
There's one last thing to you I wanna sayBaby there's no goodbyes
I'll always be right by your side
Well I may be far away
You know that my heart will stay with you alwaysI don't wanna say the words that people say
'Cause when I go away my love will stay
In the heart of you to help you make it through
Baby that is why there can't be no no goodbyes, oh ohBaby there's no goodbyes
I'll always be right by your side
Well I may be far away
You know that my heart will stay with you alwaysBaby there's no goodbyes
I'll always be right by your side
Well I may be far away
You know that my heart will stay with you alwaysAlways you know what no more goodbyes
