Vengeance Factor

Further Seems Forever

This is worth it's weight in words
To give in now would be absurd
So keep your retracted
Retractions to yourself
This plays upon my sympathies
I shouldn't have come, I know I should leave
But they said, but they said
I should see this for myself
And now these ties are severing
And I was saving everything
Can't believe, I believed
I believed that this might help
Making amends, seems so far out of hand
Still holding strong to where we stand
Must have lost all sight
Of how we ever felt
Gettin' even, gettin' even
Gettin' ready to fight
Gotten smug, gotten ugly
And lost all sense of pride
And I'm forgetting, I'm forgetting
Why I wanted to cry
And I'm still waiting on a day
No hearts would die
Gettin' even, gettin' even
Gettin' ready to fight
Gotten smug, gotten ugly
And lost all sense of pride
And I'm forgetting, I'm forgetting
Why I wanted to cry
And I'm waiting on a day
No hearts would die
Plays upon my sympathies
I shouldn't have come, I know I should leave
But they said, but they said
I should see this for myself
Now these ties are severing
And I was saving everything
Can't believe, I believed

I believed that this might help
Gettin' even, gettin' even
Gettin' ready to fight
Gotten smug, gotten ugly
And lost all sense of pride
And I'm forgetting, I'm forgetting
Why I wanted to cry
I'm still waiting on a day
Why I wanted to cry
