In the Forest

Gojira

I want to live in the forest

Between the roots and the branches I lay

On the moss I sit, I want to rest by the riverI want to live in the forest forever

The power of trees, I want to feel forever

Connection with life, animals, and starsBetween the roots and the branches I lay

Meditate the light wide open to the stars

Speak of the whales, deep in the oceans

Speak to the planets, deep universe
