Full Metal Jacket Soundtrack

there he goes
he finally closed the door i turn the lock feeling more confused than before what gives i thought that you would love more now you're a coward, sure then he rains, look in his eyes he loves you well, well
i am bad
well, well, hell
i am bad he's smart he leaves me wanting more knowing that i gave less and knowing why time, time is what i would need full of myself, indeed just walk away, surprised he loved you well, well
i am bad
at loving trust, you know that i trusted you but i could not let you do to just fall in, i wanted to try for you wanted to die for you dramatic things, the lies i loved you well, well
i am bad
at loving you surprise
just look in my eyes
