

I Want You

Wrabel

I'm all fucked up,
and honestly, it's been killing me, Honestly, it's been killing me and I, I don't wanna call, I'm calling you 'cause I'm drunk tonight
Pick up the phone or I'll call a million times!
Why do I try when I know you're right there,
Sleeping with someone else?
When will I learn that love is just nonsense?
I'm not in control of myself,
and I want you, uuh uh uh uh
I want you, love
and I want you, uuh uh uh uh
I want you, love'Cause I've been high, high enough for the both of us, High enough to forget I'm still in love and this cheap champagne, I hate the taste but I'll take a sip Celebrate in the way you fucked me up
Why do I try when I know you're right there,
Sleeping with someone else?
When will I learn that love is just nonsense?
I'm not in control of myself,
and I want you, uuh uh uh uh
I want you, love
and I want you, uuh uh uh uh
I want you, loveOh, no don't know why I want you,
When I know you're the wrong thing
Don't go, you're the only thing That makes me feel something,
and I want you, uuh uh uh uh
I want you, love
and I want you, uuh uh uh uh
I want you, love
I want you, love
I WANT YOU!
