

Torch Of War

Vader

War, this means war
Your weakness makes me sick
Eternal struggle, the iron will of life
Prayer to the father warUnder the sign of hammer of thorn
In the storm of steel
Raise the spirit of eternal warrior
Till victoryRivers of blood of innocents
Surrounding my feet
Can you hear
The last whisper of ChristI am laying siege to Christians
Under flag of hate, under flag of death's head
Eternal cycle of struggle
Between the nature and heavenTrampling the lamb with poker faced
And ice in eyes
Dead bodies and stench of fear
Holy legions crushed, hail victoryI am calling death mortals are nothing for me
Inverted tree of Elhaz is the sing of the clan
Rebels souls on the rebel land
Hot winds cast the damned into the pits of hellBlood of innocents
Surrounding my feet
Now you can hear
The last cry of Christ
