

Sadistic Abductive

Brain Drill

A sadistic calling from the inside has now left me misplaced

From time to time I've seen you come past my way
It must have been only yesterday Your skin has looked so fair you did not have a care Sadistic thoughts had been on their way

And it haunts me!

Tying you down
so you cannot move a thread Your place is here
my fantasy has not been met

Now the pain begins
And as I cut you
a chill sends through me

You plea for your life
And I won't let you
despite your screaming

Your death comes quickly
An early grave

Should never crossed ways
An early grave

My mind's a haze

[solo]

Whore

Sadistic
Abductive
you lay gutted and lacerated

Sadistic
Abductive
you were simply a piece of meat
