

Arise (feat. Mark Wagner)

Ryan Long

Beloved can you hear me
I call across eternity
I am your God are you listening Arise my Love and Come with me x2 Your heart is sore. Your feet are weary.
Your hope is gone. Your head is hung.
Leave behind the nothing
That you've become. Arise my love and come with me.
Arise my love and come with me. Arise and come and become what you believe.
Lay down your burdens my love and come with me. Arise my love and come with me. X2
