Rubella

Smoking Popes

I'm inflamed with desire and it's spreading like wildfire
She doesn't know it but she'll soon be mine
It's just a question of time, RubellaI'm insanely obsessed and I simply will not rest
She doesn't know it yet but she's the one
And I won't stop until I'm done, RubellaAnd the heart that she has stolen
Has now swollen twice it's natural size
I've lost six pounds since I laid eyes on her, RubellaI'm in love with a girl she's affected my whole world
She doesn't know it but she's inside me
And now I've gone completely, Rubella
