

Walk Away

Lara Fabian

When I woke up today
I could have sworn you were a man that would never betray
I could have sworn you were my life and my dreams and my faith
But in one moment you took that all away
Did you break me to see if I'd break
Did you want to know what I was made of
'Cause there's nothing now that you or anyone can say
So save your breath and walk away
And your excuses they make me want to scream
I could have sworn you were a man that would never be mean
I could have sworn you were the light and the end of the dark for me
But you proved that it's never what it seems
Did you break me to see if I'd break
Did you want to know what I was made of
'Cause there's nothing now that you or anyone can say
So save your breath and walk away
And your excuses they make me want to scream
I could have sworn you were a man that would never be mean
I could have sworn you were the light and the end of the dark for me
But you proved that it's never what it seems
How can I look at you the same way
Nothing is the same as it was
How can I touch you in the same way
We'll never be the same
I could have sworn you were a man that would never betray...
