

Everasia

Novembre

Si inizia un nuovo viaggio di terra, aria, e mare e poi volare, sino a quasi il sole sfiorare[Translation:] (A new journey begins, by earth, air and sea and then flying 'till almost caressing the sun)Issa oh, oh issa issa oh, oh issa
issa oh, oh issa
issa oh, ohDa padre a figlio da padre a figlio da padre al figlio del figlio[Translation:] (From father to son form father to the son of the son)Feel the summer in this morning and it's thousands passions riding riding us to farther seas and rising dreams of EverasiaAnd the gold is there, just cross that bridge of clay, damn! be brave an take that treasure where your father spent strengthAnd I avoid the mire in which my legs has falter the boots are laced,the eastwind leads you,dear old ship, way EverasiaAlla fine delle righe,solo il tempo per capire che si muore e il tempo non si ferma mai ma per te che sai gioire son bugie da ignorare vivi sempre non morire mai[Translation:] (In the end of the lines there's just the time to realise that we die and the time never stops.
But to you that know how to joy these are lies Live forever, never die)Oceanheart, non-forgotten soon will rise from its deepest self, it will rise to its primal splendour, it will rise backAtlantis, new knowledge new geometry, new astronomy, magicReligion of the science erecting its churches devoid of heavensIt's fire, what we need it's fire, for this world gone, fire, fire
