Final Goodbye

Comeback Kid

This is my final goodbyeNow, I can say it's real
And I can feel the pain
All I do is reason
I wanna change things
But I don't have a sayScreaming expectations
They've got me by the throat
I'd rather die than bleed
Let's forget those things we saidCan we erase from our minds
The agony of uncertainty
In our livesWell, I've seen it come and go
And I've had the time
I've had the time of my life
All this with youTrying to be strong
And I've seen the time
I've seen the time go so fast
All this with youThis is my final goodbye
My final goodbyeI'd rather die than bleed
Let's forget those things we said
I'd rather die than bleed
Let's forget those things we saidI'd rather die than bleed
The sun has set but still
Here I am, I can't forgetI'd rather rectify than bleed
The sun has set but still
Here I am, that no one can't forget
