SYX

It's all right
to forget what I left behind and my life
becomes the ride, it's my surrendering And I'll fight to live the ride
and I'll fight
to survive Just one
lets me forget how it used to be
and this time
I lose myself behind her face circles I've traveled in seem to come in close
and so familiar
we've been here before Tell me you found it in patters we knew about spoken from breezes
who had it all figured out
teach me to fight
storms I've been running from
teach me to fight
teach me to fight I will not not forget just who I am
