

Cold

O'G3NE

I see a child that has been done so wrong
His mother covers him and sings him a sad song
Her tears keep falling down while reaching for the sky
The blue is turn to ash
No bird will ever flyI see a man who carried out his own
Too shy of neighbours after starving to bone.
He used to know them up until his kids were grown
No friend who really cared
He really keeps unknownCold, it seems like no one dares, nobody cares
Cold, no matter how big the lie, don't justifyI see a girl that has been forced, to end
Life full of tragedy and no skills for defence
She was so beautiful but hate was all she got
No angel in disguise, but won't be missed a lottCold, it seems like no one there's, nobody cares
Cold, no matter how big the lie, don't justify Cold, it seems like no one there's, nobody cares
Cold, no matter how big the lieHow come we don't realy feel Oblivious to whats the deal
Can't we live without the warmth insideCold, Why do we change, why do we change, why do we changeShow the power by taking a stand
Make a difference by giving the hand
No reason to fight, you can not hide, cause this isnt rightCold, it seems like no-one dares nobody cares
Cold, no matter how big the lieCold
