

The Girl Can't Help It

Mitchel Musso

Can't ask her to the dance, don't stand a snowball's chance
She'd ever go with me
She's way too beautiful up on the pedestal
She's so out of my league
But I don't blame her at all, it's not her fault
The girl can't help it, the girl can't help it
The girl can't help it, yeah
The girl's got me obsessed but she's oblivious
The girl can't help it, yeah
Yeah, the perfection goes from her head to toes
She's like a work of art
When she walks down the street can't find the air to breathe
She's such a superstar
But I don't blame her because she knows not what she does
The girl can't help it, the girl can't help it
The girl can't help it, yeah
The girl's got me obsessed but she's oblivious
The girl can't help it, yeah
I got the mind to tell her but I can't find the nerve
It's so disturbing
The girl, the girl, the girl, yeah
The girl can't help it, the girl can't help it
The girl can't help it, yeah
The girl's got me obsessed but she's oblivious
The girl can't help it, yeah
The girl can't help it, the girl can't help it
The girl can't help it, yeah
The girl
