Just Like You

Tk-J

You texted me to say you made a mistake
Couldn't say it face to face
You thought you wanted her and got what you deserved
Now look who's getting played
They say karma comes around
Used to want you, but I don't now
Roses are dry, violets are black
And I can be cruel, just like you
The tables have turned, can't help but laugh
While saying we're through, just like you
You hit me up again to tell me I'm the one
But I just hit erase
'Cause I'm so over it
Finally havin' fun, so drama go away
They say heartache heals in time
Whoever they are, they were right

Roses are dry, violets are black
And I can be cruel, just like you
The tables have turned, can't help but laugh
While saying we're through, just like you
Tell me was she worth, was she worth letting me go
Shovel in your hand and you dug yourself a hole
Now you're crawlin' back just to hear me tell you no
Oh, oh-oh, oh, oh yeah!
They say karma comes around
Used to want you
Roses are dry, violets are black
And I can be cruel, just like you
The tables have turned, can't help but laugh
While saying we're through, just like you
Roses are dry, violets are black
And I can be cruel, just like you
The tables have turned, can't help but laugh
While saying we're through, just like you
