Afterlife

Bolt Thrower

AfterlifeAs you feel your soul
Depart from this world
Prepare for a journey
To regions of the unknownYour life has now ended
You fear the conclusion
Cast into the dark realms
Destined to the afterlifeAs terror grips your soul
Direction is uncertain
Fear clouds your mind
Ignorance your burdenAfterlifeWithin the dominion of the lifeless
You plead to die in peace
Now despair for total forgiveness
Trance within your beliefYou lived your life as follower
Bowing to every command
Your gods shall never answer
Imprisoned in this landAll is silent, held within Existing forever, new life begins
Eternal desolation, your soul to giveEnslaved for all existence
Perpetual endless torment
Reality is now dormant
Within the afterlifeAfterlife
