Keep On Thinkin'

Sloan

I just wanna keep on thinkin' 'bout you
'Cause the last time you told me was
I wanna keep on thinkin' 'bout you
But the last time we talked I wasn't hearing youAll rights that you cannot buy away
The lease that I want you to pay
I knew all along
I'd have to come through with what was going onGonna have to tell you baby
Gonna have to tell you, ooh, gonna have to tell you
The reason that I want you to stay
Is a reason you don't wanna knowThe reason this rules by the way
At least what I want you can pay
And I knew all along
I'd have to come through with what was goin' on
Now that you're gone I can seeI just wanna keep on thinkin' 'bout you
'Cause the last time you told me was
I wanna keep on thinkin' 'bout you
The last time we talked I wasn't hearing youI knew all along
I'd have to come through with what was goin onGonna have to tell you baby
Gonna have to tell you, ooh, I'm gonna have to tell you
The reason I don't want you to stay
Is a reason even I don't knowI wanna keep on thinkin' 'bout you
'Cause the last time you told me was
I wanna keep on thinkin' 'bout you
'Cause the last time we talked I wasn't hearing you'Cause the last time we talked I wasn't hearing you
'Cause the last time we talked I wasn't hearing you
