Soliloquy

William Control

Oh lord?
I?ve tried to cut away
all the cancer
that lives within my skin and bones and oh my how hard its been to live without you by my side in this bed across the world

loss..

I've lived in tragedy
I've given everything

my soliloquy

loss...

my savage will to give my one list chance to give

this time how calm before the storm and the sunsets and our heats grow very very cold and this life
how much longer can I wait if money was your object I'd would bore you with a subject involving love
involving love

loss..

I've lived in tragedy

loss...
