

Overboard

Ingrid Michaelson

I could write my name by the age of three
And I don't need anyone to cut my meat for me
I'm a big girl now
See my big girl shoes?
It'll take more than just a breeze to make me

Fall over
Fall over
Fall overboard, overboard
Fall overboard
Just so you can catch me

Not as strong as I seem to think I am
My distressing damsel
She comes out at night
When the moon's filled up
And her eyes are bright and I think I simply ought to

Fall over
Fall over
Fall overboard, overboard
Fall overboard
Just so you can catch me
You can catch me

I watch the ships go sailing by
If I play the girl, will you play the guy?
And I never thought I'd be the type to

Fall over
Fall over
Fall overboard, overboard
Fall overboard
Just so you, you can catch me
You, you can catch me
You, you can catch...

I watch the ships go sailing by
If i be your girl, will you be my guy?

And I never thought I'd be the type to fall, to fall

To fall

To fall

To fall

To fall

To fall

To fall

To fall

To fall

To fall over, fall over, fall over....

Fall over

Fall over

Fall overboard, overboard

Fall overboard

Just so you can catch me

You can catch me

You, you can catch me
