

Just Waiting

Brian McKnight

The future's not promised, the past unknown
I'm only working with flesh and bone
One thing's for certain is that I need you now
And all of the time But I don't know how 'cause
I'm going crazy, going out of my mind
Cause you've got me thinking about you
At the most inappropriate times I don't want a cure for this
If I exist, it's only to serve you
For all you are to me, baby Life is being with you
And everything else is just waiting
Hold on, baby
Hold on, baby
Life is making love to you
And everything else is just waiting
So hold on, baby
Hold on, baby It's hard to stay focused in times like this
What on me's broken only you can fix
Cause I'm feeling you so strong
Baby, you're my favorite song
And I'm gonna play you all night long But I don't know how 'cause
I'm going crazy, going out of my mind
Cause you've got me thinking about you
At the most inappropriate times I don't want a cure for this
If I exist, it's only to serve you
For all you are to me Life is being with you
And everything else is just waiting
Hold on, baby
Hold on
Life is making love to you
And everything else is just waiting
Hold on, baby
Hold on, baby Oh, baby, baby
Can't wait to feel you here right next to me
Oh, baby, baby
When we're making love between the sheets Life is being with you
And everything else is just waiting
So hold on, baby
Life is making love to you
And everything else is just waiting

So hold on, baby
Life is being with you
And everything else is just waiting
So hold on, baby
Life is making love to you
And everything else is just waiting
So hold on, baby
Hold on
Let's make love
