Airhead

Second Come

You think you're cool 'cause you know every girl in town
But you don't do, 'cause when you're out at night, they don't look your way
You've got all that trendy shit and a jolly air for brains
And now you are busy to watch out for that ugly girl you know
You think girls like that will ruin your style
'Cause a perfect guy like you need something more
You're so cool, you're so cool, you've got everything a girl desires
You're so cool, you're so cool with a perfect butt you can go far
You're telling me that I am thinking way too small to understand
That you have reached your goals and I am far away
And all the things that you say that you know I don't want to hear
So throw your empty words away and listen to what I say
I'm not jealous in all the lies you tell
Just take it easy, you might end up in hell

You're so cool, you're so cool, you've got everything a girl desires
You're so cool, you're so cool with a perfect butt you can go far
You're so perfect, you've got everything
And you are way too cool to Understand that you're out of line
She said so, she said so, you've got everything a girl desires
She said so, she said so with a perfect butt you can go far
You're so cool, you're so cool, you've got everything a girl desires
You're so cool, you're so cool with a perfect butt you can go far
You're so cool, you're so cool, you've got everything a girl desires
You're so cool, you're so cool with a perfect butt you can go far
You're so cool, you're so cool, you're so cool, you're so cool
And you know what for, you're so cool, you're so cool
You know what for, you know what for, 'cause you're so cool
