

Golden

Switchfoot

Like freedom in spring She's alone tonight with a bitter cup and She's undone tonight, she's all used up
She's been staring down the demons
Who've been screaming she's just
Another so and so, another so and so You are golden, you are golden, child
You are golden, don't let go, don't let go tonight There's a fear that burns, like trash inside
And you're ashamed of the curse that burns your eyes
You've been hidin' in your bedroom
Hopin' this isn't how the story has to go
It's not the way it goes, it's your book now You're golden, you are golden, child
You are golden, don't let go, don't let go tonight You're a lonely soul, in a land of broken hearts
And far from home, is a perfect place to start
Yeah, yeah
So this final verse is a contradiction
And the more we learn, the less we know We've been talkin' about a feeling
We both know inside but couldn't
Find the words, I couldn't write this verse
I've seldom been so sure about anything before Golden, you are golden, child
You are golden, don't let go, don't let go tonight Golden, you are
(This world is a dead man down)
Golden, child, you are
(Every breath is a singing crown away)
Golden, don't let go
(Like some debilitated king)
Don't let go tonight Golden, you are
(Earth spins and your mind goes round)
Golden, child, you are
(Green comes on the frozen ground)
Golden
(And everything will be made new again) Golden, golden
(Like freedom and spring)
Golden, you are
(Like freedom and spring)
Golden, child, you are, gold
(Like freedom and spring)
