

Be Honest in Love

Grafton Ash

Lies can cover lies
And hands will cover eyes
Here we are again
Let me play pretend

The truth (the truth) will follow you

Fighting as your fears
Slowly disappear
Try to find the words
A moment to decide
Iâ€™m cornered from both sides
I canâ€™t seem to find the words

The truth (the truth) will follow you
Oh the truth (the truth) will follow you

We were in the wrong place at the wrong time
Watched her face turn from smiles
Be honest in love, be honest in love
Sheâ€™s writing on my words 'return to sender'
Felt her fire burn to embers
Be honest in love, be honest in love

If I could turn back time
And turn my wrongs to right
Then I could find a way out
A moment of desire
Burns like wildfire
I canâ€™t seem to find a way

Oh the truth (the truth) will follow you
In time the truth (the truth) will follow you

We were in the wrong place at the wrong time
Watched her face turn from smiles
Be honest in love, be honest in love
Sheâ€™s writing on my words 'return to sender'
Felt her fire burn to embers

Be honest in love, be honest in love

We used to watch the sun, rise from behind, dark clouds to find out, youâ€™d found out, Iâ€™m finally alone
It was like weâ€™d just begun, but this time weâ€™d fall, youâ€™d know, we were never ever gunna be who

We were in the wrong place at the wrong time
Watched her face turn from smiles
Be honest in love, be honest in love
Sheâ€™s writing on my words 'return to sender'
Felt her fire burn to embers
Be honest in love, be honest in love

Be honest in love, be honest in love
