

Hit Song

DJ Format

[Cut in Voice]

People always asking me, man how do you make a hit record, well heres what I do

[Abdominal]

Pulling the king and the seven and I'm feeling lucky, So I was like hit me

At which point my phone rang, and it hit me

That I had mentioned to format he should hit me

Off on the cell he put my cards down and hit these..hot buttons

Andy it's matt let me ask you something mate

I just come from london you know we're meeting with the label

They seem to want another hit, are you available?"

I was like dude, you know what to do

Peruse through a few new beats and promptly hit me

Out with a beat tape or better yet a disc so when I'm writing I can swiftly

Rewind and hittin drums, couple of weeks of hits I'll have written some

And I'll be kickin them, just as soon as I can hit eng-uh-land

I hope that my plane won't be swingin from, hittin turbulence

Or else I'll be hit with disturbances

Down in my gut, you know nervousness

But when we safely hit tempa firma it's

Only right the first thing we hit our palms together

Because that's been the hiphop greeting like for forever

After that I'll probably wanna hit the mic booth

But adjust the mic, so I don't hit my right tooth

Once I hit my comfort level, hit record

And soon enough we'll have another, hit record

In fact even though the song isn't done

By my count that was 18 hits alone

And it's only verse number one

[start chorus]

I use the word hit in many -said?- tenses

Listen how many hits I manage to condense in the first verse

In the second I'm trying to rhyme as many words I can find that sound like (hit!)

In the last third verse, -hitilating?- metpahors example: I write more hits than mascot hit samples

[end chorus]

Abs and Format, not doing what others did, (step in studio, it's just another hit)

[Same Cut In Voice]

Alright, I want you to listen to this next little verse and if you feel like it sing along
And if you don't wanna sing along, maybe you can clap your hands

[Abdominal]

As I sit, infinite scripts, like a list, it's from the tip of a bic
Much betwixt my digits less, strictly from the itty bit of sunlight
That manage to slip between the curtains thin slits, (hits)
It's illumination adequate, to the point that I can refrain from hitting electric switches
Which is a good thing, because it prevents my hydro bill from reaching up to fever pitches
I'll keep it simply lit, my raps exhibit wit, which would even shine through in egyptian crypts
Ill equipped, and resist that stupidly step to this, surrender forfeit
Shit nit wit quit twit pit sing first versus the verses that this kid spits
 Insist to persist, you'll cease to exist
 So cease and desist, or meet with my fist
Specifically your lips, because that's the just where -nicholas afra?- hits

[chorus]

Abs and format, musical brothers kid, (step in the studio, it's just another hit)

See I got hits kid, so many hits, (how many hits ya got!?), lots
 Exemplary metaphors, let me select a few
More hits than when you play blackjack with a deck of twos
More hits than latin percussionists administer to wood blocks
 More hits than jimmy dropped at woodstock
 I'm not kidding
I'm responsible for more hits than workaholic mafia hitmen
 I need to make hits in the worst way
Hitting harder than a family of starving steroid injected mexican quintuplets
 Armed with crowbars smacking the shit out of a candy filled pinata on their birthday - only hits when I write
More hits than germans surfing fetish websites
 Yo, that is a lot of hits.
More hits than barry bonds playing slow pitch, in a disabled seniors league
 More hits than -goldolopy?- in force or on a typical hockey team
 Instinctively you wince, from this flurry of hits
But if your still unconvinced, a last example but then I'll be finished
More hits than roy jones junior in a ten round barefisted cage match versus
 A sleep deprived, blindfolded richard simmons

[chorus]

Abs and format, we hit you like your mother did

(step in the studio, it's just another hit)

[Cut In Voice]

That's all, c'mon, that's all, that's all, that's all that's allll, that's all, that's allllll I need To make a hit record...
