For Two

Kat Edmonson

And as they talked
The hours away
They knew
They knew
And as the night
Became the day
They knew
They knew
That nothing would be the same
And nothing would ever change
And everything
They'd ever do
Now on would be for two
Instrumental
They said the words
The day they wed
I do
And I do
And understood
The words they said
Were true
So true
That nothing would be the same
And nothing would ever change
And everything
They'd ever do
Now on would be for two
Instrumental
And everything
They'd ever do
Now on would be for two
Now on would be for two
