Autumn to May

Peter, Paul & Mary

Oh, once I had a little dog, his color it was brown
I taught him for to whistle, to sing and dance and run
His legs they were fourteen yards long, his ears so very wide
Around the world in half a day, upon him I could rideSing tarry-o day, sing, autumn to MayOh, once I had a little frog, he wore a vest of red
He'd lean upon his silver cane, a top hat on his head
He'd speak of far off places of things to see and do
And all the Kings and queens, he'd met while sailing in a shoeSing tarry-o day, sing, autumn to MayOh, once I had a flock of sheep, they grazed upon a feather
I'd keep them in a music box from wind or rainy weather
And every day the sun would shine, they'd fly all through the town
To bring me back some golden rings, Candy by the poundSing tarry-o day, sing, autumn to MayOh, once I had a downy swan, she was so very frail
She sat upon an oyster shell and hatched me out a snail
The snail had changed into a bird, the bird to butterfly
And he who tells a bigger tale would have to tell a lieSing tarry-o day, sing, autumn to May
