Beachparty

No Fun At All

There is a place where reality is wrong
And I know because I've been there
Where plastic people live their plastic lifes
And I know because I've been there

I need to understand
Why everyone around
Me is telling lies
I need to understand

I have to try to understand
Try to gather all my thoughts
But when I'm close they always are shattered
I don't know where I stand

There was a time where I did't really care
And I thought I had the answers
I went around wearing a delusive face
And I thought I had the answers
