I'll Find a Way

Circa Survive

If you choose to see
Everyone is there for you to lose yourself
But nothing feels as good when you're alone
So never let it happenDon't give in to wild currents
Don't believe in callous rituals
I'll always want to carry it all, love
Find a way to carry it all for youIf you choose to make Something so particular and force its shape
Then nothing feels as good as the mistake
When you let it happen
Don't give in to wild currents
Oh, I never will
Don't believe in callous rituals
I'll always want to carry it all, love
Find a way to carry it all for you
I'll Want to carry it all, love
Find a way to carry it all for youIf you try and hide it
You will always feel alone
You will always feel aloneIf you try to deny it
You will always feel alone
You will always feel aloneAlone
You'll trap [?] me to the end
I know you will
Alone
You'll tear out all your hair
I know you will
I'll always want to carry it all, love
Find a way to carry it all for you
I want to carry it all, love
Find a way to carry it all for you
