Behind The Mask

Berzeker

I was the anchor on a heavy sinking ship
And we're sinking faster, I am the only culprit
How did everything go wrong?
I'm trying to make sense of it
I've gotta stay strong, we've gotta stay strong
Don't you dare walk away
We're all here to stay
Remnants left of a time once new
We can never go back to that place
Go back to that place
I'll be your lover in a room that's full of sins
I'm undercover, I should run but I just can't help it
I'll taste like summer on a stormy winter night
You taste like fire burning everything in sight
Don't you dare walk away
Please don't go away
Remnants left of a time once new
We can never go back to that place
Go back to that place
Masks we wear to disguise the truth
We can never go back to that place
Go, go, I said I will go
Go, I said I will go
Go, I said I will go
Go, go, go
Remnants left of a time once new
We can never go back to that place
(Go back to that place)
Masks we wear, times we've shared (Those times we've shared)
Remnants left of a time once new
We can never go back to that
To that, to that place, to that place
That place
