

Blinded (feat. Laurie)

Masoud

A city ripe with fallen angels
Wounded souls on vacant streets
The faces could be anyone of us
Faces we're too scared to meetAnd they're reaching for a hand
We turn the other way
Pretend that we don't see
Don't know what to sayThe struggle still remains
To find the strength inside
To do what's rightWe've been blinded, oh
Let's rewind and go to a time before
We were blinded, oh
Let's rewind and go to another timeIn every face is my reflection
We are all one in the same
Different phases and directions
Intersecting the same planeAnd they're reaching for a hand
We turn the other way
Pretend that we don't see
Don't know what to sayThe struggle still remains
To find the strength inside
To do what's rightWe've been blinded, oh
Let's rewind and go to a time before
We were blinded, oh
Let's rewind and go to another timeWe've been blinded, oh
Let's rewind and go to a time before
We were blinded, oh
Let's rewind and go to another time
