

Velocity Girl

Manic Street Preachers

Written by: gillespie/beattie
Here she comes again
With vodka in her veins
Been playing with a spike
She couldn't get it right
Splendour in silver dress
Velocity possessed
The world was hers again
It fell apart again
I don't need anyone to hurt me
No, not anyone at all
Cause my so-called friends have left me
And I don't care at all
