Jealousy

The Waifs

Now's the time you're leaving you got to do what you got to do
When you come in from the cold I'll still be warm for youAnd I won't be bending backwards like you never done for meWhen you look at what's left insideYou've only got your jealousyIt's wearing me thin, all this trying to pleaseI'm looking within and I can see for milesAnd I'm trying to grin as I'm trying to pleaseI keep looking within, you know I can still see for milesIf you go and play your games of jealousyLike a player in a show you never gonna wait around for what remains
I don't want to deal with that againIt's your jealousy baby
You got to lose it

Lyrics provided by
https://damnlyrics.com/