Bang to Rights

Aghast!

Bang to rights, it seems tonight
God I'm so tight, but my ass is fine

Be the one, to carry on
I'm half way there, as if you care
I linger here, in starlight fear
As if you care, as if you care.

The night is on, the DJ's gone
There's only us, the friendly ones

I need it love, these heels they rub
Of all the times, to make you mine
So take the bait, I just can't wait
Cos we're bang to rights, it seems tonight

So on and on the lovers go
And in their arms is were I know
That all is safe in here tonight
And all the world is sure tonight
Sure tonight
Seems tonight
Oh it seems tonight
Here tonight
