

Girl In a Coma

Fit for Rivals

You took it off, and put it on for them.
Never satisfied with no one no not anything.
You take it all and throw it back at them.
Everything is wrong unless you have your way again.
Take your time, don't hurry up, cause nothing is ever enough.
Everytime you're around girl you've forgot.
How you try to make believe in something you're not.
Your time is running out.
Oh girl you've got so damn much to prove.
It's a shame you'll never know how much you gotta lose.
Your time is running out.
You shook me off, and went around again.
Never satisfied with no one no not anything.
You came around, to fade away with them.
Everything is wrong unless you have your way again.
