Comeback

Grinspoon

She turned alcoholic by the age of fifteen,
Locked away in rehab so that no one could see,
He moved out to California to get some snow,
When he finally got there, he had no where to go, woah
Don't call this a comeback,
It's hardly a comeback if you've never gone
Don't call this a comeback,
It's hardly a comeback if you've never gone
She became a prostitute to make her some green,
He just got addicted, yet living a dream,
They got under supervised, so under achieved,
All the people they all started being obscene, woah
Don't call this a comeback,
It's hardly a comeback if you've never gone
Don't call this a comeback,
It's hardly a comeback if you've never gone

Woah x4
I wonder what it's like to be on the silver screen,
All the glamour, all the heart that covered that scene,
Where do all the empty people go with their dreams,
Find you're living next to me, we'll build it you see, woah
Don't call this a comeback,
It's hardly a comeback if you've never gone
Don't call this a comeback,
It's hardly a comeback if you've never gone
Don't call this a comeback,
It's hardly a comeback if you've never gone
Don't call this a comeback,
It's hardly a comeback if you've never gone
Woah x4

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/