Life In Her Yet

Rag'n'Bone Man

She still remembers the time that was uncomplicated
But sure as the sun rise, she's seen things that you'll never see
Losses and heartaches amount to her strength
But oh, how they both take their tollShe's still here fighting
Better know there's life in her yetTime will take us all, and turn us into stones
It leaves us with regrets and picks apart the threads
Hung over fragile bonesLet her go
I can't let her go
I can't let her goHer hands tell the story of hardships that we'll never know
Her face is a map of a lifetime on well traveled roads
But those eyes tell nothing of a soul that is spared
A heart that is longing for deathShe's still here fighting
Better know there's life in her yetTime will take us all, and turn us into stones
It leaves us with regret, it picks apart the threads
Hung over fragile bonesLet her go
I can't let her go
I can't let her go
Let her go
I can't let her goLet her go, let her go, let her go
Let her go, let her go, let her go
