

Lepers Among Us

Dimmu Borgir

Annihilate!
The commotion breeding the perverse
For bloodbath is on your doorstep
A mass impending threat
The perfection of religion
Becoming our deathDo not respond blindly
To growing gardens in decay
Stand guard when visitors fall silent
Blow the candles out, end the road hereNo solace will be found
Within elements of the tribe
When covered with filth from all sides
Compassion will failTheir promises are honored
In a mind controlled state
The absence of reality, reason and logic
Prove failure of faithEnriched by the presence of it's clarity
Darkness descends, everyone diesNo solace will be found
Within elements of the tribe
When covered with filth from all sides
Compassion will failTheir promises are honored
In a mind controlled state
The absence of reality, reason and logic
Prove failure of faithFor wisdom aligns in our favor
Illuminated before our eyesUncover!
A new beginning, the inevitable dawn
Justice will be given where justice is due
And guide the righteous ones
Back to the final resting ground
To perceive the truly hellboundDemonstrate superiority
A grand gesture of liberation need no judge or jury
Demons rate inferiority
Scatter the remains of the preyDo not respond blindly
To growing gardens in decay
Stand guard when visitors fall silent
Blow the candles out, end the road hereUncover!
A new beginning, the inevitable dawn
Justice will be given where justice is due
And guide the righteous ones
Back to the final resting ground
To perceive the truly hellbound
