

River Disturbance

Deliverance

The heavens can't contain You
The Earth is your footstool
From dust I was created.

And to it, I will return. The mind, it cannot fathom
God nailed to a tree.

My life is like a raging river coursing to the sea. Now I'm drowning in the river disturbance longing to depart.

Though I've grown weary of the river disturbance
you're calling to my heart.

You're calling to my heart. There is a shore by the river of disturbance.

There is a place, we call it "Peace on Earth".

Make it to the shoreline of the river of disturbance.

Yeah, you got to go on under for a second birth. Now I'm drowning in the river of disturbance.

I hear you calling me.

I hear you in the flood.

(2x) I hear you calling me now. (Lead Solo) I'm standing here crying out to you
my voice speaks no words
I've allowed the rivers fury to wash away all I have learned Now I'm drowning in the river disturbance
longing to depart.

Though I've grown weary of the river disturbance
You're calling to my heart. Now I've found peace in the river disturbance
You're calling to my heart.
(2x)
