Sail The Ocean

Darin

Sometimes I feel caught in yesterday
Because of all the memories that burn
Where I will go, there is no return and time
Will heal my yearn
I dream about the world and I'm still young
I got to live my life while I am free
There is so much from you I will keep
Thoughts of you and me
Feel the wonder
Of tomorrow
In you
Baby, I am sorry
But I have to leave and sail the ocean
By myself
Maybe there will come
A day for us to find a way to let us
Meet again
Maybe this is not the end
Listen to the wind between the trees
Watch the stars shine for you and me
Open your eyes, it ain't hard to find the Miracles in the night
Dive into the ocean of your dreams
Sometimes things ain't what they seem
If you feel lost and might be afraid and
Lonely in the rain
Paint the picture
Of tomorrow
In you

Baby, I am sorry
But I have to leave and sail the ocean
By myself
Maybe there will come
A day for us to find a way to let us
Meet again
I'm saying goodbye
Baby, please don't cry
'Cause forever we'll be more than friends

Maybe this is not the end
Maybe this is not the end
I hope I'll see you someday
But for now goodbye
I spread my wings and fly
Maybe this is not the end
Sail the ocean by myself
Baby, I am sorry
But I have to leave and sail the ocean
By myself
Maybe there will come
Meet again
I'm saying goodbye
