

The Everlasting Gaze

The Smashing Pumpkins

You know I'm not dead
You know I'm, you know I'm not dead
You know I'm not dead
Now you know where I've been
As you sleep, torn I am
Weighted down, patiently
Born of love
You know I'm, you know I'm not dead
I'm just living in my head
Forever waiting on the ways of your desire
You always find a way and through it all
Into us all you move
Forgotten touch, forbidden thought
We can never have enough
You know I'm not dead
You know I'm, you know I'm not dead
You know I'm not dead
Found below the creatures scream
Stranglehold, a God machine
Begging to tear us out
Worn as hope

You know I'm, you know I'm not dead
I'm just the tears inside your head
Forever waiting on the ways of your desire
You always find a way and through it all
Into us all you move
Forgotten touch, forbidden thought
We can never have enough
You know I'm not dead
We all want to hold in the everlasting gaze
Enchanted in the rapture of his sentimental sway
But underneath the wheels lie the skulls of every cog
The fickle fascination of an everlasting God
You know I'm not dead
I'm just living in my head
Forever waiting, forever waiting on cruel death
You know I'm not dead
I'm just living for myself, forever waiting

You know I'm not dead
You know I'm not dead
You know I'm not dead
You know I'm not dead
