Wait for the Summer

Yeasayer

Life is easier when one of us is dead
Heeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeey
I will wait a year
Noone starts to hear an accidental fall
And they won't suspect a thing at allWait for the summer
We'll sleep when we wanna
Don't tell your mother
We'll leave when we
We'll leave when we wannaAnd I have dreamed about it
Now I read about it
And I can't grieve about it
And I can't heeeeeeeeeeySomeone help me
Someone help me
Someone help me please
Someone help me
Someone help me
Someone help me pleaseIt's an accidental fall
And they won't suspect a thing at allWait for the summer
We'll leave when we wanna
Look at your mother
Is that who ya
Is that who ya wanna?Ahhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhh!Oooooh Oooooh
Oooooh OooohTell my lady here what I was drinking
And in not too long, won't she start screaming?
What a proud old man, what was she thinking?
I hear her voice sometimes, when I've been dreamingTell my lady here what I was dreaming
And in not too long, what was I thinking?
What a proud old man, won't she start screaming?
I hear voice sometimes, when I've been
When I've been drinkingRising rising falling down
I'm rising rising falling down
I'm rising rising falling down
I'm rising rising falling downI'll kill my baby with a .45
One last shot right into her head
And I'm falling falling falling downSINK INTO THE RIVER!
SINK INTO THE RIVER!Tell my lady here what I was drinking
I'll kill my baby with a .45
One last shot right into her head
And I'm falling falling falling downSINK INTO THE RIVER!

SINK INTO THE RIVER!I hear her voice sometimes
When I've been
When I've been drinkingRising rising falling down
I'm rising fising falling down
I'm rising rising falling down
I'm rising rising falling down
