Hell or Heaven (feat. Jessica Ess)

For All Those Sleeping

I've got my sins and you're well aware
So when we don't make it out alive, where do we go from there
I'd give my life up for a single day
'Cause its never enough, no its never
So if you follow then I'll always wait
Even if that means forever
And on my final day, this is what I'll say
Wipe your tears away when they bury me
Don't beg me to stay when I'm finally free
'Cause I know when we meet again, we'll be home, Hell or Heaven
I know you're scared but you are listening
'Cause I don't think you can hear me
Nothing can take your touch from me
Not even where we go from here
What if you can't find me
Then I'll find a way
And on your final day this is what I'll say
Wipe your fears away
Don't be scared to leave
I won't beg you to stay everynight in my dreams
'Cause I know we'll meet again, we'll be home, Hell or Heaven
A lifetime's just too short to share
So will you wait?
