Delirious

Danny Saucedo

"I'm dreaming in stereo
Sleeping with the lights on
Switching to hyper-mode
Remight or land slow Speaking in tremble low?
Watching the horizon
Shifting from indigo To silver and goldSmiling to everyone
Bumping into strangers
Passing the morning crowd
Thinking out loud
How did I get here
When's it gonna happen
What's the scenario
Where do I goHalf the stories only have the drew?
But I know its better than I ever knew
Before youIt's how you got me now
Delirious
Delirious
Delirious
I'm teen feet of the ground
Delirious
Delirious
Never coming downI'm starting to crack the code
Swimming in your colours
Checking my telephone
Every second or so
Playing D'angelo
Waking up the neighbours
Singing them love songs
Singing them wrongIt's something beautiful and something new These transitions that I'm going through
With youIt's how you got me now
Delirious
Delirious
Delirious
I'm teen feet of the ground
Delirious
Delirious
Delirious
Delirious

Delirious
DeliriousI saw too once, your atmosphere?
I'm flying in a state of grace
Baby I'm halfway there
My state of mind
My point of view
My indecise? of pointing to YouOh yeaah (how you got me now)
Delirious
Delirious
Delirious
Delirious
DeliriousI'm dreaming in stereo
