Craig Cardiff

You're just a joke 'till somebody loves you
You're just a joke 'till somebody cares
You're an activism line, you're a clock run out of time
You're a story that ain't going nowhereLegion dances and black coffee
Warm nights that never end
You're an actor missing lines, you're a clock run out of time
You're a story that seems without an end
Everything I do, I do it for youYou're just a joke 'till somebody loves you
You're just a joke 'till somebody cares
You're an activism line, you're a clock run out of time
You're a story that's going nowhere
