Falling at Your Feet

Daniel Lanois

Every chip from every cup
Every promise given up
Every reason that's not enough
Is falling, falling at your feetEveryone who needs a friend
Every life that has no end
Every knee not ready to bend
Is falling, falling at your feet
I've come crawling, falling at your feetAll fall down, all fall down
All fall down, all fall down
All fall down, all fall down
All fall down, all fall downEvery teenager with acne
Every face that's spoiled by beauty
Every adult tamed by duty
(All falling)
They're all falling at your feetEvery eye closed by a bruise
Every player who just can't lose
Every pop star howling abuse
Every drunk back on the booze
(All falling)
Oh, falling at your feet
Oh, falling at your feet(All fall down)
All the information
All the big ideas
(All fall down)
All the radio waves
(All fall down)
Electronic seas
(All fall down)How to navigate
(All fall down)
How to simply be
(All fall down)
To know when to wait
(All fall down)
This plain simplicity
(All fall down)In whom shall I trust
(All fall down)
And how might I be still
(All fall down)
Teach me to surrender

Not my will, thy will
