Bathe in Blood

Evile

i keep my eyes on the screen pulse oximeter flash in indistinct green tapping of the veins haemoglobin rains bloodbath now will occurin dysfunctional belief pressure of the blood is set to be relieved tappping of the veins haemoglobin rains heart is being disturbedviolent deed, sickening greed, transfusion of obscenity losing track, eyes turn black, departure of my sanitybleeding - feel the rush, taste the heat speeding - pain threshold for a heartbeatwisdom streams, endlessly fulfilling of a murder dream night routines in the mortuary death walks on the round unseeni examine your death as i stab overhead your body cracks and i bathe in blood wallow in gore and thoughts of the dead i condemn myself as i bathe in blood saw your hell through a blood-flushing well dreams are dead as i bathe in blood washed out the life of every cell death exploration as i bathe in blooda bloodshot sight of gore bursting body sprays life to proceed no more a bloodbath of the human raceinvidious trauma transfixed bodies in a grotesque scene disgusting horror of dried out life coagulated bloodstreameyes stare blank unable to see as death reappears unspeakable chill in the hyper white light fall to my knees in fear
