Careless

Tin Pan

You're weak and you're gullible and I don't care
You're a walking disaster and I don't care
You cry yourself to sleep and I don't care
You're wasting our time and I don't care
You knew this day would come and you did
And you really should have waited
Go cry yourself to sleep and you should
Because I'm so faded
You knew this day would come and it did
And you really should have waited
Go cry yourself to sleep and you should
Because I'm so faded
You contradict everything and I don't care
Your logic is twisted and I don't care
I'll pretend to be happy and I don't care
You cry yourself to sleep and I don't care
You're weak and you're gullible and I don't care
You're a walking disaster and I don't care
You knew this day would come and it did
And you should have waited
Go cry yourself to sleep and you should
Because I'm so faded
You knew this day would come and it did
And you really should have waited
Go cry yourself to sleep and you should
Because I'm so faded
Go cry yourself to sleep and you should
Because I'm so faded
