

I Feel a Sin

Clay Shelburn

I Feel A Sin I've never been the good boy type that followed all the rules
I like everything that's bad that makes you feel so good
Like women, weed, whiskey, wine and staying out all night
I've never walked the golden road, but I turned out alright
I'll confess about the things I know that I'll do wrong
Cuz I feel a sin
I feel a sin coming on To gamble in a cheater's game was tempting from the start
We played the cards of love that were dealt by separate hearts
She said it's time to call the bet, do you hit or fold
The ace of lovely hearts and the Queen of Clubs took the gold
We're getting hot and heavy now to a good boot knocking song
Yeah I feel a sin coming on
Mmm I feel a sin coming on I know Sunday morning, I'll be kneeling to pray
But my inner devil's in control of what I do today
I'm always honest even when I might be wrong
Cuz I feel a sin I've been living wild and reckless Throwing caution to the wind
I'm hoping there's forgiveness when I
Say my goodbyes, until then Come Sunday morning I'll be kneeling to pray
Cuz my inner devil's in control of what I do today
I'm always honest even when I know I'm wrong
Yeah I feel a sin coming on

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>